Industry Veteran Sophie Mokhtari Joins Partnership Travel Consulting

Cape Coral, FL, June 12, 2024 – Partnership Travel Consulting (PTC) is pleased to announce that industry veteran Sophie Mokhtari has joined PTC as Senior Vice President–Chief Transformation Officer.

Sophie has a proven track record of successfully leading and transforming travel and meetings programs for a number of companies with T&E spend ranging from $50M to over $1B. Her career in corporate travel management spans various industries including technology, entertainment, petroleum, and gaming.

Sophie has a knack for architecting T&E programs from the ground up, as demonstrated by her work with a successful startup, Riot Games. She has also managed mature T&E programs for Fortune 50 companies including Chevron, HP, Seagrams, NBCUniversal and Comcast, navigating complex policies and landscapes with T&E spends exceeding $1.4B.

PTC’s Founder Andrew W. Menkes said “Sophie and I go back to when she was a client of PTC in her Travel Sourcing Role at NBCUniversal, and we have been friends for over a decade. Her knowledge and experience will bring unique sourcing insights and experience to our Global Consulting Team, and will be a tremendous asset to CPOs, Meetings & Events and T&E Managers. “

“Joining Andy and the PTC Global Team allows me to offer unique insights and experience to our global client base”, said Sophie. “My background as both a Travel Manager, Procurement Specialist and T&E Consultant is a perfect fit with the PTC portfolio of services and solutions
